ThetaHealing is one of the most popular and powerful energy healing systems in existence, mostly because of its ability to make positive changes quickly and pleasantly.

Because there are so many people teaching energetic work, it is crucial to find the right school. Most importantly, you need an instructor with integrity and credentials so that you can trust that the information and energetic downloads you receive will be positive and clear. Our main instructor, Janis Ericson, has been studying energy healing since the age of ten, and has practiced healing work for over a decade.

With ThetaHealing, you can consciously create your life. You can heal physical ailments and reprogram yourself for abundance, success, love, happiness, and anything else you can imagine.

Give your clients and yourself the gift of relaxation and transformation. Enroll today, and learn to read energy and conduct healings in the highest and best possible way.
